To the Superintending School Committee and Citizens of Searsport:

Gentlemen: I have the honor to submit the school report for the year ending Feb. 1, 1915.

Searsport schools have enjoyed another year of normal progress under the hands of competent teachers. The course of study has been made somewhat more definite and it has been possible, I think, to get more real study done than last year.

Only two teachers of last year's force, both held by home ties, have stayed with us. While we are fortunate in our new elections, we cannot fail to recognize the fact that this frequent change of teachers is bad for the schools that are obliged to make so many new starts.

The increased cost of living has raised the price of board and the additional qualifications required of teachers by the State have thinned the numbers from whom we can select.

One of the two principal needs of our schools, as I see them, is sufficient money to hold with us those teachers who make good. Teachers are of two kinds, good and poor. The latter we do not desire to keep and the former will not stay while other towns are paying more than we do for the kind of teacher we want our children to have. Let each parent ask himself, which is better for me and the town as a whole, a dollar a week additional—perhaps only fifty cents—to hold the successful teacher who has grown to know my child, or that amount of money in my pocket; from which it will soon go, it may well be for something much less valuable?

The second need requires no money but what is perhaps equally important, sympathetic interest and co-operation between the school and the home. The schools profit much when the parents follow up the work of the teachers, sympathetically, informing themselves on what the schools are trying to do, keeping their children each day at their desks and seeing to it that the school work comes first. It will be a great day when schools take the first place in our social life and other affairs have the back seats now so often given to school matters.

The work of the High School is covered by the report of its efficient principal.

The cost of transportation, $648.14 for the last 40 weeks, has come to be a considerable item in the year's expenditures. It has been necessary to carry children from the J. W. Brock farm, the Back Road and the Shore Road to Belfast, the railroad station neighborhood and the Mortland Road. The State law leaves no choice in the matter. Sec. 2, Chap. 15 says: "The superintendent of schools in each town shall procure the conveyance of all common school pupils residing in his town, a part or the whole of the distance, to and from the nearest suitable school, for the number of weeks for which schools are maintained in each year, when such pupils reside at such distance from the said school as in the judgment of the superintending school committee shall render such conveyance necessary." If the School Committee believe that children live too far from school to walk the law obliges the Supt. to arrange for transportation.

The School Com. has done what it could to limit this expense but each year there appear to be more children to carry and, in some cases at an increased cost per pupil.

In spite of this cost the school financial standing is better than it has been for some time. The $303.23 showing as an overdraft is due to the old overdraft of $279.36 and $130.20 paid on orders drawn the previous year but not presented till this year. All bills have been paid to the time of closing the town's books. A carefully thought-out budget and economy in expenditure have done away, this year, with the customary additional overdraft for general school purposes.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. B. WOODBURY,

Supt. of Schools.

REPORT OF PRINCIPAL OF HIGH SCHOOL

Searsport, Me.

To Mr. William Woodbury, Superintendent of Schools and to the Members of the Board of Education:

Gentlemen: I respectfully submit my report of the Seasport High School.

We have made only one change in our course of study this year. General Science is offered to the freshmen for one-half year in place of Physical Geography. The change has proved very satisfactory. I believe if this course was offered for the whole year and made to include a simple course in the elements of Agriculture that it would be still more valuable.

During the present school year the students as a whole have shown a decided interest in their work, and an understanding and regard for the teachers which has relieved discipline and made the school work more enjoyable.

A branch of the Maine State School Improvement League has been instituted in the high and grammar schools. The purpose of the League is the improvement of the students, mental, physical and moral, also of the physical appearance of the school house and grounds. We have received several interesting and instructive lectures from professional men in town. Others are to follow.

The school is a member of the University of Maine Discussion League. On Feb. 22, two representatives from this school will discuss "The Recall" with representatives from three other high schools of this county. This contest extends throughout the State, the final winner is to receive a four year scholarship at the University of Maine. Aside from this prize, the knowledge and practice of discussion will be of great value to the competitors.

In regard to the material needs of the school I shall mention but one.

Our prescribed course offers chemistry and physics alternate years. In order that an adequate course be given in physics next year considerable physical apparatus should be provided. The apparatus on hand is quite inadequate for the teaching of this very valuable study.

To be satisfied with the school as it is, would be a confession of inefficiency. Three courses of improvement are suggested.

The attendance should be increased, not alone that the school needs more pupils, but what is more important—the boys and girls need that which the school has to offer; education. Employers are more exacting, demanding greater efficiency. The uneducated boy or girl is greatly handicapped in life.

The standard of the school should be raised. This may first be accomplished by the co-operation of parents, who insist that their children perform a certain amount of regular home study, also by offering such courses as will appeal to the students.

More interest should be manifested by the towns people in the school. A Parent's Visiting Day is designated, as an inducement to parents to call and see the school in session. Other schools of no greater size and much less age have pictures, pieces of statuary, and libraries which make the rooms pleasant and the work more enjoyable. Bare walls and empty corners are suggestive of confinement.

A little less of indifference, a little more of generosity, and a little more of co-operation between town's people, officials and students and the school will be made worthy of the pride of every citizen.

Prin. High School.
